My dear Srinivasan,

I had drawn an advance of pay of Rs.800/- (Rupees Eight hundred) while at Geneva attending the International Labour Conference in the month of June 1949 which I have short drawn in my Salary Bill for August 1949 sent herewith. This short-drawal was due to my having drawn the pay for the month of June 1949-here also. I shall thank you if you could arrange to send the amount of Rs.800/- to the Government of India, Ministry of Labour for being sent to the Indian Embassy at Bern. The enclosed bill may be audited and the cheque sent to me as usual.

Report of Shri K.T. Bhashyam, Minister for Law & Labour regarding his foreign tour in June and July 1949.

===:0:===

I left Bangalore on the 2nd June 1949 by the Deccan Airways and reached Bombay the same afternoon. I exchanged Rs.3,000/- advanced by Government for my expenses into Travellers' Cheques at Messrs.Thomas Cook & Sons. I got about £ 225/- at 1 s. 5 5/16 d. per rupee exclusive of commision charges.

I left Bombay on the 3rd June 1949 by the Air India International and reached Geneva the next morning, i.e.4th.

4th June 1949 (Saturday) & 5th June 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Vevey Cycle Works and went up to Montreaux and from there I visited the famous Chillon Prison. I ran up to Caux where a meeting of the Moral Rearmament Society took place. From there, I went up the funicular railway and visited Rochet-de-ney and the Meteorological Station on the top of the hill.

11th June 1949 (Saturday) & 12th June 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Annecey on Saturday and Chamonix on Sunday. They are both in France. I saw some small industries, particularly glass and board works.

25th June 1949 (Saturday), 26th June 1949 (Sunday) & 27th June 1949 (Monday):

I visited Paris, Versailles and Malmaisson. I saw the Velosolex Cycle Works and have asked that the entire literature should be sent to the Government of Mysore by separate post. I have also written to the Indian Embassy in Paris to contact the Company further regarding details and let us know. I also visited some Perfumery Works and a Tractor manufacturing Factory.

2nd

2 July 1949 (Saturday) & 3rd July 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Milan. Mr.Bertolini took me into the Breda Factory and showed me round the Electric traction manufacture, turbines, generators etc. They manufacture Electric Trolley buses here.

4th July 1949:

I visited Venice and saw the Glass Works of Pauly & Co. The expert Mr.Adolfo Jose Esquinazz agreed to teach our young men the art. The Glass Works are run on cottage industry basis. I visited the Lido Beach. I also visited the Lace and Embroidery Works.

5th July 1949:

I visited Florence and saw the Uffiji and Pitti Palaces containing famous paintings and sculptures. I saw here Dante's statue and the Arno bridge.

6th July 1949:

I visited Naples and stood on the Volcano of Solfatara. It was an exciting experience. I visited the ruins of Pompeii and saw the Shell works and Cameos manufactured in and round about Naples.

7th July 1949:

I visited Rome and saw the statues of Ceaser and Pompey and the Hadrian and Trajan monuments. I saw the old Race Course, Colesium, amphitheatre, place of Mark Antony's oration etc., and the ruined temples of Saturn, Venus etc.,as also the triumphal arches of Augustus, Tiberius etc. I visited the Scooter Motor Works besides visiting the Vatican and the great Cathe of St.Peter's.

8th July 1949 & 9th July 1949:

8th July 1949 & 9th July 1949:

I left Rome and visited Brig and Lausanne and finally reached Geneva.

10th July 1949:

I left Geneva for Bombay and reached Bangalore on the evening of the 10th July 1949 by air.

The rest of the period in June and July, I stayed in Geneva engaged in the I.L.O.Conference.

Report of Shri K.T.Bhashyam, Minister for Law & Labour regarding his foreign tour in June and July 1949.

I left Bangalore the 2nd June 1949 by the Deccan Airways and reached Bombay the same afternoon. I exchanged Rs.3,000/- advanced by Government for my expenses into Travellers' Cheque at Messrs.Thomas Cook & Sons. I got about £225/- at 1 s. 5 5/16d. per rupee exclusive of commission charges.

I left Bombay on the 3rd June 1949 by the Air India International and reached Geneva the next morning, i.e.4th .

4th June 1949 (Saturday) & 5th June 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Vevey Cycle Works and went up to Montreaux and from there I visited the famous Chillon Prison. I ran up to Caux where a meeting of the Moral Rearmament Society took place. From there, I went up the funicular railway and visited Rochet-de-ney and the Meteorological Station on the top of the hill.

11th June 1949 (Saturday) & 12th June 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Annecey on Saturday and Chaumonix on Sunday. They are both in France. I saw some small industries, particularly glass and bead works.

25th June 1949 (Saturday),26th June 1949 (Sunday) and 27th June 1949 (Monday):

I visited Paris, Versailles and Malmaisson. I saw the Velosolex Cycle Works and have asked that the entire literature should be sent to the Government of Mysore by separate post I have also written to the Indian Embassy in paris to contact the Company further regarding details and let us know. I also visited some Perfumery Works and a Tractor manufacturing Factory.

2nd July 1949 (Saturday) & 3rd July 1949 (Sunday):

I visited Milan. Mr.Bertolini took me into the Breda Factory and showed me round the Electric traction manufacture, turbines, generators etc. They manufacture Electric Trolley buseshere.

4th July 1949:

I visited Venice and saw the Glass Works of Pauly & Co., The expert Mr.Adolfo Jose Esquinazz agreed to teach our youngmen the art. The Glass Works are run on cottage industry basis. I visited the Lido Beach. I also visited the Lace and Embroidery Works.

5th July 1949:

I visited Florence and saw the Uffiji and Pitti Palaces containing famous paintings and sculptures. I saw here Dante's statue and the Arno bridge.

6th July 1949:

I visited Naples and stood on the Volcano of Solfatara. It was an exciting experience. I visited the ruins of Pompeii and saw the Shell works and Cameos manufactured in and round about Naples.

7th July 1949: I visited Rome and saw the statues of Ceaser and Pompey and the Hadrian and Trajan monuments. I saw the old Race Course, Colesium, aphitheatre, place of Mark Antony's oration etc.,and the ruined templ triumphal arches of Augustus, Tiberius etc. I visited the Scooter Motor Works besides visiting the Vatican and the great Cathedral of St.Peter's.

8th July 1949 and 9th July 1949:

I left Rome and visited Brig and Lausanne and finally reached Geneva.

19th July 1949:

I left Geneva for Bombay and reached Bangalore on the evening of the 12th July 1949 by air.

The rest of the period in June and July, I stayed in Geneva engaged in the I.L.O.Conference.

SUBJECT:- Thirtysecond Session of the International Labour Conference to be held in Geneva during June - July, 1949.

Mr. T.V.S.

Sir,

I am directed to say that the Governor-General has agreed to the deputation of the Government representatives to the Conference mentioned above on the following terms:-

I. (a) Travelling allowance from their headquarters to the port of embarkation emplaning and from the port of disembarkation landing back to the headquarters at the rate of 1½ First class fares if the journey is performed by rail and single fare if the journey is performed by air.

(b) Free Air passage to Geneva and back by any available route determined by the Ministry of Labour.

(c) Free board and lodging at enforced halts (including places in India where the halt is necessary for the purpose of connecting passage) en route where the Air Transport Companies do not provide the same, such expenses being restricted to the Daily Allowances admissible at that place.

(d) Subsistence allowance in Geneva at 30 Swiss Francs per diem plus free bed and breakfast at a hotel approved by the Indian Embassy at Berne.

(e) Actual expenses incurred on account of Dock Dues and Passport fees subject to production of receipts.

(f) Incidental expenses such as taxi hire, cab fares etc. incurred on official duty while in Geneva.

(g).....

(g) If necessary, a member may carry an excess baggage weight upto 80 lbs (inclusive of the free allowance allowed by the air companies) to provide for official papers. The Secretary to the Indian Delegation may carry as passenger freight in addition, an excess baggage upto a limit of 50 lbs for official papers.

II. Officials, if they so desire, may draw advance of the subsistence allowance due to them on account of their stay in Geneva in connection with the Conference from the Indian Embassy at Berne.

III. Those officials who may like to draw their pay for the period of their stay in Geneva may do so through the Indian Embassy at Berne. In view, however, of the acute foreign exchange position the officers will not be permitted to draw more than 50% of their pay in Swiss Francs subject to a minimum of the equivalent of Rs. 1,000/- a month, the balance being payable in India. Allowances such as dearness allowance will be drawn in full in India.

2. The deputation of the officials will begin from the date they proceed to Bombay en route to Geneva from their Headquarters, and will last for about 8 weeks.

3. The pay of the officers will be met from the normal source but the allowances etc. will be debited to the Central Government Head of Account, "57-Miscellaneous - Unforeseen charges - other items".

4. The following persons will constitute the Government part of the Indian Delegation to the Conference mentioned above:-

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF LABOUR.

RULES GOVERNING ALLOWANCES OF OFFICIAL MEMBERS OF THE INDIAN DELEGATION TO THE THIRTYSECOND SESSION OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN GENEVA DURING JUNE-JULY 1949.

The Official members of the Indian Delegation to the 32nd Session of the International Labour Conference which will open in Geneva on the 8th June, 1949, will be entitled to the following terms:-

(a) Travelling allowance from their headquarters to the port of embarkation emplaning and from the port of disembarkation landing back to the headquarters at the rate of 1½ First class fares if the journey is performed by rail and single ~~1½~~ fare if the journey is performed by air.

(b) Free Air passage to Geneva and back by any available route determined by the Ministry of Labour.

(c) Free board and lodging at enforced halts (including places in India where the halt is necessary for connecting passage) on route where the Air Transport Companies do not provide the same, such expenses being restriced to the Daily Allowances admissible at that place.

(d) Subsistence allowance in Geneva at 30 Swiss Francs per diem plus free bed-and breakfast at a hotel approved by the ~~Indian Embassy at Berne.~~ Leader of the Delegation

(e) Actual expenses incurred on account of Dock Dues and Passport fees subject to production of receipts.

(f) Incidental expenses such as taxi hire, cab fares etc. incurred on official duty while in Geneva.

(g) If necessary, a member may carry an excess baggage ~~consisting of official records upto a limit of 14 lbs in addition to~~ weight up to 20 lbs. (inclusive of the free allowance allowed by the air companies) to provide for official papers. The Secretary to the Indian Delegation may carry as passenger freight in addition, an excess baggage upto a limit of 50 lbs for official papers.

2. Officials, if they so desire, may draw advance of the subsistence allowance due to them on account of their stay in Geneva in connection with the Conference from the Indian Embassy at Berne.

3. Those officials who may like to draw their pay for the period of their stay in Geneva may do so through the Indian Embassay at Berne. In view, however, of the acute foreign exchange position the officers will not be permitted to draw more than 50% of their pay in Swiss Francs subject to a minimum of the equivalent of Rs. 1,000/- a month, the balance being payable in India. Allowances such as dearness allowance will be drawn in full in India.
